1

[Preponderance of Tape 172A voting on numerous bills]

(Representative Curtis Seidlits in the Chair)

SEIDLITS: Mr. Junell. Chair recognizes Mr. Junell.

JUNELL: Mr. Speaker, Members, I would move to call up House Bill 668 with Senate amendments.

SEIDLITS: Chairs lays out House Bill 668 with Senate amendments. Chair recognizes Mr. Junell.

JUNELL: Mr. Speaker, Members, House Bill 668 is the Deceptive Trade Practices Act. In the Senate they added a prohibition against red-lining and property and casualty insurance, and some clarification on the language on mental anguish. I would move adoption.

SEIDLITS: Mr. Junell moves to adopt; the House concurs; and Senate amendments to House Bill 668. A record vote is needed?

JUNELL: Is not needed.

SEIDLITS: Is there objection? Chair hears none. So ordered. Chair recognizes Mr. Culberson.

CULBERSON: Mr. Speaker, I move to bring up House Bill 699 with Senate amendments.
